

JUAN MAGÁN - HEATING UP THE DANCE FLOOR

Internationally recognized producer, singer, remixer, and DJ from Spain - Juan Manuel Magán González - heats up the dance floor while dominating the charts. He has worked with talents such as Selena, Nelly Furtado, Paulina Rubio, Juanes, Don Omar, Pitbull, and more. Juan has headlined sell-out parties in the most prominent cities worldwide including Barcelona, Ibiza, Madrid, Paris, Miami, Geneva, San Francisco, Dubai, Lisbon, Munich, Milan, Singapore, and Bucharest.

His early years as a producer in tandem with Marcos Rodriguez yielded Suave (2008), a successful full-length album from the power duo, spawning club smashes like "Suck My" and "Bora Bora" which reached the Top 5 and Top 20 on the Spanish singles chart.

Juan soon developed a habit of releasing hits on his own like "Verano Azul" and "Mariah", nominated as the Best House Artist in the World by Beatport Awards.

NOMINATED 'BEST HOUSE ARTIST IN THE WORLD'
BY BEATPORT AWARDS

HIGHLIGHTS:

"Bailando Por El Mundo" (producer and performer):

- Dominated Top 10 Billboard's Latin charts for 31 weeks
- Charted at #3 for Top Latin Pop Songs
- Nominated 'Best Party Song of the Year' on Premios Tu Mundo

"The single, produced by Juan Magan, serves as the perfect party anthem with its catchy bass and signature rhymes laced by Mr. 305...this track has all the right stuff to make it on your summer playlist!"
-Sugey Palomares, Latina

Don Omar's "No Sigue Modas" AKA "Ella No Sigue Modas" (co-producer / featured performer):

- Billboard Latin Rhythm Airplay chart for 9 weeks
- Top 20 most popular songs in Billboard Magazine

"Bailando Por Ahi"

- Will be featured in a promotion with the Univision program entitled "Mira Quién Baila", where users will submit videos of them dancing to the song.

CONTACT

Jim Kennedy | A Train Entertainment | jkennedy@a-train.com | 510.893.4705