

Peter Rowan

Peter Rowan, a Grammy-award winner and five-time Grammy nominee, is a world-renowned bluegrass singer-songwriter whose highly influential career spans over five decades.

Throughout Rowan’s remarkably prolific career, he has penned numerous songs that have been adopted into the repertoire of many other well-known artists across a variety of genres. This stands as testament to the lasting impression Rowan has made upon the music community.

Notable artists performing Peter Rowan originals:

“Panama Red”	Peter Rowan
	New Riders of the Purple Sage
	Scott McCaughey
	Old & In The Way
“Mississippi Moon”	The String Cheese Incident
	Featured in the MTV series “Altered States”
	Peter Rowan
	Seatrain
“Land of the Navajo”	Jerry Garcia
	Jerry Garcia Band
	Peter Rowan
	Muleskinner
“That High Lonesome Sound”	Michael Martin Murphy
	Old & In The Way
	Peter Rowan
	New Grass Revival
	Old & In The Way

Contact

Jim Kennedy | A Train Entertainment | jkennedy@a-train.com | 510.893.4705